1. DEFINITIONS

The following definitions shall apply to the following terms when used in these conditions:

"The Seller" means Technographic Displays Limited or any subsidiary or associate company of the Seller.

"The Goods" means the goods supplied by the Seller to the Purchaser.

"The Services" means the services supplied by the Seller to the Purchaser.

"The Purchaser" means the person to whom the Goods and/or the Services are supplied by the Seller and where the Purchaser is a company, any subsidiary or associate company of the Purchaser.

2. QUOTATIONS AND ACCEPTANCE

(a) Quotations are valid for 30 (thirty) days unless withdrawn and represent no obligation upon the Seller until the Seller accepts the Purchaser's order. (b) The Purchaser's order must be identified with an order number and must refer to any quotation issued by the Seller and must contain sufficient information to enable the Seller to proceed. (c) In the event of inconsistency between these conditions and the Purchaser's conditions, these conditions and any other specific terms imposed by the Seller shall prevail. No variation of these conditions or any other specific condition imposed by the Seller shall be binding upon the Seller or the Purchaser unless and until the variation has been accepted in writing by a duly authorised person on behalf of the Seller. This condition applies equally whether or not a variation is made before or after the conclusion of a contract of sale or supply between the Seller and the Purchaser. (d) These conditions shall also apply to any future oral or written contract for the supply of goods and/or services by the Seller to the Purchaser save to the extent that such conditions are in any such future contract specifically varied or excluded or are inconsistent with what is expressly agreed in any such future contract.

3. PRICE AND DELIVERY

(a) Prices do not include value added tax or any other applicable tax imposed upon the value of sales, which taxes shall where applicable be charged at the appropriate rate prevailing at the tax point for the sales in question. (b) Unless otherwise agreed delivery will be ex-works and the Goods shall be packed to the Seller's normal specification in non-returnable packaging and carriage will be arranged only at the request and at the expense of the Purchaser. Where applicable COD charges will be added to the price of the Goods. (c) The Seller does not accept any responsibility for any damages, shortages or loss in transit of Goods which are carried by an independent carrier PROVIDED THAT the Seller will use its best endeavours to assist the Purchaser in respect of proof of delivery of Goods to such carrier but undertakes no liability greater than this. In the Purchaser's own interests, the following rules are to be observed in the event of damage, shortage or non-delivery: (i) damage or shortage should be notified in writing both to the Seller and to the carrier within three days of receipt of Goods. (ii) in the case of non-delivery or total loss, notification should be given to both the Seller and to the carrier within ten days of the date of despatch. (d) Release documentation and certificates of conformity for items supplied from bonded stock will normally be provided free of charge, but the Seller reserves the right to make an appropriate charge. (e) Any delivery period quoted is an estimate only and will commence only from the date upon which the Seller acknowledges the Purchaser's order. Times quoted for the delivery of Goods and/or for the provision of Services are quoted in good faith but are intended as estimates only and are not therefore to be treated as being of the essence of the contract. Provided that the Seller takes all reasonable steps to deliver the Goods and/or to provide the Services at the times stated the Seller shall be under no liability for failure to do so. (f) The Seller reserves the right to deliver Goods ordered as one lot in more than one consignment and to invoice each consignment separately. Defects in Goods contained in one part consignment shall not entitle the Purchaser to reject any future consignments supplied under the same order and the liability to pay for each instalment unless otherwise specifically agreed in writing arises as though each consignment were supplied under a separate order.

4. TITLE AND RISK

(a) Risk in Goods supplied shall pass to the Purchaser upon delivery of the Goods to him or to any carrier or agent acting on his behalf in accordance with Condition 3 above or as otherwise specified in the Seller's acknowledgement of the Purchaser's order. (b) The Seller reserves title and the right of disposal in accordance with Section 19 of the Sales of Goods Act 1979 and retains all right and property to any Goods delivered to the Purchaser under any agreement for sale until either (i) the time of receipt by the Seller of (a) all sums payable in respect thereof (whether such sums are due on delivery or are the subject of any credit terms agreed or granted for any period thereafter) and (b) any sums due from the Purchaser to the Seller at the date of delivery on any other account, or (ii) if the Purchaser incorporates the Goods in other goods in the ordinary course of manufacture until the time of such incorporation whichever of these two times is the earlier. (c) Until such payment or any such incorporation the Purchaser to the Seller shall hold and store the Goods as bailee for and on behalf of the Seller and in such a place and way that the Goods are readily identifiable as the Seller's property and shall deliver them unto the Seller forthwith upon the Seller's request made at any time after delivery. Any such request by the Seller shall have the effect of bringing to an end the agreement for the sale of the Goods to the Purchaser (without prejudice to the Seller's rights to claim damages from the Purchaser for any breach of the agreement for the sale prior to such request). Prior to payment as aforesaid and prior to any such request as aforesaid: (i) the Purchaser shall be entitled to incorporate the Goods in other Goods in the ordinary course of manufacture but shall not otherwise have any right to use the Goods, (ii) the Purchaser shall indemnify the Seller against any loss or deterioration of the Goods and will keep them properly insured for not less than their contract value, and (iii) will not purport to pledge or charge the Goods or allow any lien to arise over them. (d) In the event that payment for the Goods is not made in strict conformity with the terms of payment contained in these conditions or in such other terms of payment as shall specifically agreed in writing between the parties, the Seller shall be entitled to repossess the Goods if he has parted with the possession and shall have an irrevocable free licence to enter into property belonging to the Purchaser or its agents for the purpose of recovering possession of the Goods.

5. PAYMENT

(a) Liability for payment shall arise on the delivery of the Goods to the Purchaser or such person as the Purchaser may direct and payment therefore shall be made not later than thirty days from the date of invoice unless otherwise specifically agreed in writing between the Seller and the Purchaser. (d) The Seller shall be entitled to charge interest at a rate of two percent per month in respect of any sum still outstanding from the date on which it becomes due for payment until the date it is received by the Seller. (e) The Seller reserves the right at any time to withdraw credit terms contained in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this clause and to substitute cash with order or cash on delivery terms if it considers it appropriate to do so. (f) The Seller reserves the right to suspend deliveries and/or to cancel any outstanding order or part order where payment for any part thereof is not received on the due date. (g) No cash or other discount will be allowed unless specifically agreed in writing between the Seller and the Purchaser. (h) It is a precondition of any claim against the Seller that the Purchaser shall have complied in full with the terms of payment and all other obligations under these conditions.

6. DESCRIPTION AND DATA

(a) The Goods will be supplied substantially as described but where the Seller is the designer and/or the manufacturer the Seller reserves the right to make design changes which, however, will not lower the performance criteria of the Goods nor affect their mechanical interchangeability nor increase the price thereof.
