

Website terms and conditions for use

Technographic Displays Ltd. (Technographic Displays) takes every effort to ensure that the information published on this web site is accurate. However, Technographic Displays cannot accept any liability for the accuracy or content. Visitors who rely on this information do so at their own risk.

Copyright and neighbouring rights

The material featured on this site is subject to copyright protection unless otherwise indicated. The copyright protected material may be reproduced free of charge in any format or medium for research, private study or for internal circulation within an organisation. This is subject to the material being reproduced accurately and not used in a misleading context. Where any of the copyright items on this site are being republished or copied to others, the source of the material must be identified, the copyright status must be acknowledged, and any usage fees incurred must be paid.

For any other proposed use of the material please apply in writing to Technographic Displays.

The permission to reproduce material does not extend to anything on this site identified as being the copyright of a third party. Authorisation to reproduce such material must be obtained from the copyright holders concerned.

The copying and use of Technographic Displays logo and other Technographic-related logos is not permitted without prior written approval of Technographic Displays.

Virus protection

Technographic Displays makes every effort to check and test material at all stages of production. It is always wise for users to run an anti virus program on all material downloaded from the Internet.

Technographic Displays cannot accept any responsibility for any loss, disruption or damage to your data or your computer system which may occur whilst using material from the Technographic Displays web site.

Comments, questions and feedback

If you send an enquiry by e-mail to a general enquiry address identified on Technographic Displays web site, we will only use your personal details obtained from your enquiry to respond to your query or improve the site. In some instances, it may not be possible for Technographic Displays to provide the information requested directly. In such circumstances we may pass your enquiry to another company or organisation so that they can fulfil your information request. We may store the details that you supply, but will delete your details if you so request.

Cookies and log files

Our web site does not use cookies, nor does it make log files.

(Cookies are pieces of data that are often created when you visit a web site and are stored in the cookie directory of your own computer).

Changes to these terms and conditions

If these terms and conditions change in any way, we will place an updated version on the web site.
